Stinger volleyball season opens with Concordia Classic Tournament

The Concordia University women's volleyball tournament takes place this weekend at the Loyola Gymnasium, 7200 Sherbrooke St. W.

The host Stingers will compete against the Queen's Golden Gaels, McGill Martlets and Guelph Gryphons for the tournament title.

Queen's posted a 6-6 record last season in the OWIAA East Division, while Guelph went 9-5 in the OWIAA West Division. McGill posted an impressive 11-5 record in Quebec and made it to the division finals before bowing out to the Laval Rouge et Or, a perennial powerhouse. The Stingers struggled last season, finishing 0-16 in the strong Quebec conference, but they posted a 5-6 record against Ontario teams in non-conference play.

Concordia lineman Jeff Anderson named O-QIFC Player of the Week

Defensive tackle Jeff Anderson of the Stingers was named O-QIFC Player of the Week after his efforts helped Concordia win 23-10 over the Queen's Golden Gaels at Concordia Stadium on Sunday afternoon. Anderson had a career day with one solo tackle, six assists, two sacks, one tackle for a loss and he forced a fumble, stopping a Queen's drive late in the game. He was the key man for Concordia's defensive unit which held Queen's to a net offence of 242 yards and 10 points. Heading into the game, Queen's was the highest scoring offence in the O-QIFC. In 1996, his rookie season, Anderson was the leading tackler on the Stingers and was named an O-QIFC all-star. The native of Greenfield Park, Que., checks in at 6-foot-2, 255 pounds.
